The Adam And Eve Song

(sing to the tune of the Farmer in the Dell)

God made the universe
God made the universe
He saw that it was good, Amen
God made the universe

A serpent slithered in
A serpent slithered in
He talked to Eve about the fruit
A serpent slithered in

Then God created man
Then God created man
He made Adam in His likeness
Yes God created man

Eve ate forbidden fruit
Eve ate forbidden fruit
She shared the fruit with her husband
They ate forbidden fruit

God made the woman Eve
God made the woman Eve
He took a rib from Adam's side
God made the woman Eve

God was very sad
God was very sad
He told them they must have to leave
Oh, God was very sad.

God placed them in Eden
God placed them in Eden
He said all this is yours for food
God placed them in Eden

And that's how things went wrong
And that's how things went wrong
Oh that's why life became so hard
Yes, that's how things went wrong.

But do not touch that tree
But do not touch that tree
Just do not eat that fruit you see
Oh, do not touch that tree

Thank God He made a way
Thank God He made a way
JE-SUS is the Way
And I belong to Him!

For The Adult

All Things New booklets are a children's adaptation of "The New Creation Man" message:

The creation, God's plan for man, the interruption of that plan by the enemy, the consequences of that interruption, God's plan of restoration for man, Why Jesus needed to come, and the original plan restored.

These eternally liberating truths have been put in a vivid story form to capture the imagination of young children, trusting the Lord to give them an experiential knowledge of the finished work of Jesus Christ on the cross of Calvary.

This gained, will remain with them for life, raising them as young disciples of Jesus who can proclaim the true gospel in their own generation as well. Young children must not be left behind in the coming revival. This will prepare them to have a solid foundation on which to base their lives and walk with the Lord now and also in the future.

In summary, they are children's booklets on
"Paradise Made",
"Paradise Lost", and
"Paradise Regained".

It is encouraged that an adult disciple sits with the child or children to read and discuss the things in the booklets. The children should also be encouraged to do the simple exercises as this will help them to interact more with the truth that is being passed across.

Happy reading and may the Lord lay His hands on, and imprint His own image deep into the hearts of as many children as will read the booklets.

Remember God told them they would surely die if they ate the fruit? Do you think they died?

Yes! Adam and Eve died spiritually because the light life of God left them and the life of darkness came into them.

That life of darkness is called SIN. From that time on, Adam could not come near God again. He was dirty inside because he now carried a life different from God's original life that was in him before.

It is not good to disobey God because He always wants to be our Best Friend. Adam and Eve brought sin unto us all!

Then something sad happened to Adam and Eve. God drove them out of the beautiful garden. They must look for somewhere else to live.

Theirs was the very first disobedience of man to God. The very first SIN.

God drove them out and put a flaming sword at the entrance of the garden. Colour in.

“Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them, for of such is the kingdom of heaven. And He laid His hands on them...” (Matthew 19:14-15)

My Targets for Booklet 3

Read your targets out to your supervisor and explain them in your own words.

1. To learn to take God’s instructions from the Bible seriously.
1. To love obedience and hate disobedience.
2. To see how bad Adam’s disobedience was, and how it turned everyone into God’s enemies.
3. To learn to pray for grace to be obedient.
4. To think on these targets as I do the work pages and as I have fun drawing, colouring and answering the questions.

This is Adam and Eve before they disobeyed God. Can you see their happy smiley faces?

Memory verse:

“Then the Lord God called to Adam and said to him,
Where are you?”

(Genesis 3:9)

Now draw them below after they disobeyed God. Remember their happiness is gone now. They are sad and scared. Anyone who disobeys God is sad and scared like Adam and Eve. Pray to obey God always.

A Sad, Sad Day

Later in the evening, God came to the garden to play with Adam and Eve as He had done before. Only this time, He could not find them.

“Adam, where are you?” God called.

3

“I am hiding because I am naked and ashamed”. Adam answered. Then God saw that His friends had disobeyed Him. He was very unhappy with them. And very angry with the enemy that deceived them.

Oh Dear!! Adam!!!

From Booklet 2

Genesis 2

Do you remember what God said to His friend Adam and his wife in the beautiful garden of Eden?

He told them to be fruitful and have many children whose lives would shine the light of God and drive the darkness far away so that the darkness could no longer cover the earth like it did before God spoke and said “Let there be light”.

Do you remember this in booklets 1 and 2? Maybe you should read them again to remind you.

But when we disobey like Adam and Eve, then we cause the devil to dance and laugh because our life can no longer shine the light of God that scares the devil.

Disobedience brings darkness because it is sin. And, God hates sin!

Will you pray that God will help you obey so that your life can cause God to be happy and the devil sad today.

Time to pray now, just like this child. Your obedience to God can begin by you praying to Him everyday to thank Him for the day, and to ask Him to keep you as His child and friend forever.

The devil must have thought:

“Yes! Now they have sinned against God and He can never be their friend anymore. All the light that their lives carried before that made me scared is gone forever! I am not scared of man now because his life has become darkness and he has become my slave. Ha ha ha!”

You see when we obey God, we cause the enemy to be scared and sad because then our life is shining the light of God, and the devil cannot stand that light. So he runs away from us.

Colour in Adam and his wife in the garden of Eden. Can you see how happy they were as the friends of God?

God also gave them another important instruction to obey. He said:

“You may eat any fruit that you like here. But there is only one fruit that I do not want you to eat. If you eat it, you will surely die”.

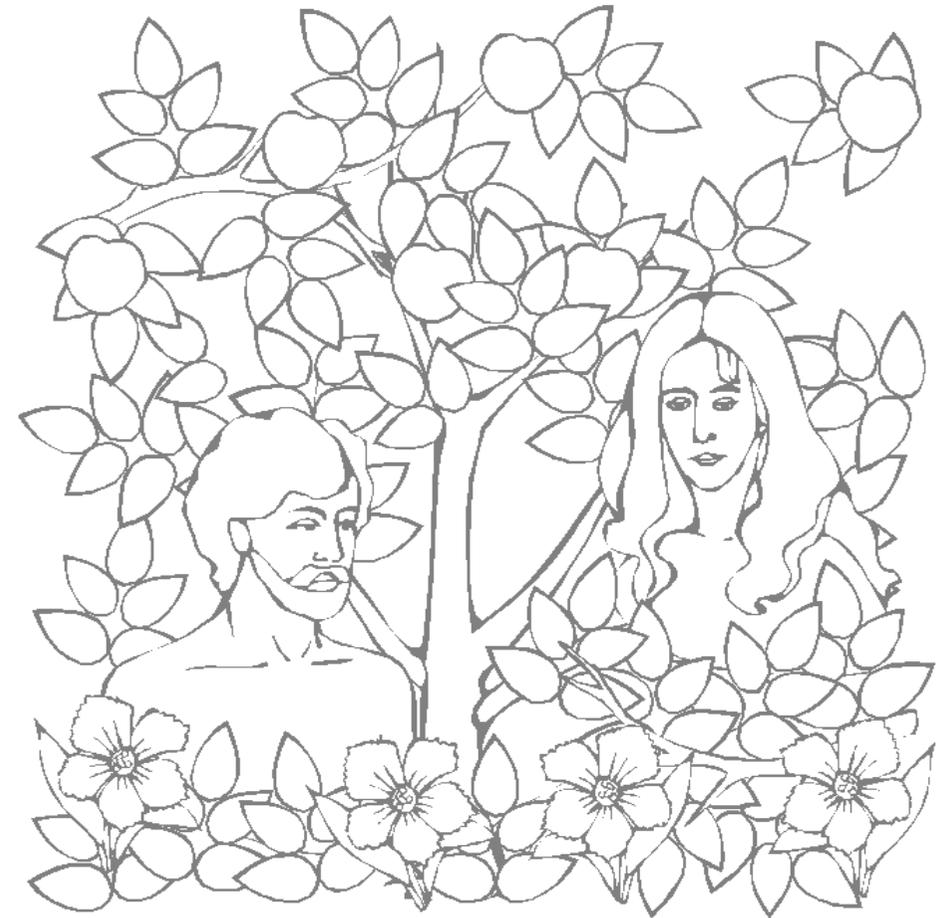

If they obeyed God’s instructions, He would always be their Friend and they would live a happy life in the beautiful garden. But if they disobeyed, God would not be their Friend anymore, He would be their enemy.

Then, they were both ashamed because they had disobeyed God, their best friend.

How do you think the wicked devil felt when Adam and his wife sinned against God by eating the fruit that God told them not to eat? I think he must have been so happy he was laughing all the way.

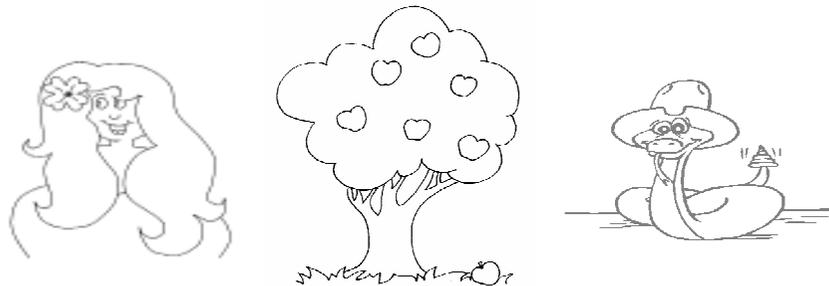

The devil wanted to turn man against God. Did the woman listen to this evil serpent or not? She listened to the devil and she ate the fruit. That was very bad of her. She also gave some to her husband Adam and he too ate it.

The serpent deceived Eve and said to her, “if you eat the fruit, you will become like...”

Colour Adam and Eve under one of the many fruit trees in the garden. Try to colour the leaves one by one. Don't scribble.

Adam and Eve were happy to obey God and everything went on well,
UNTIL...

The Evil Serpent

One day, Eve was all alone. Then a serpent came and spoke to her. The devil was inside that serpent. He told Eve to eat the fruit that God told them not to eat. He was teaching Eve to disobey God. And this was very sad.

Colour in the serpent tempting Eve. What sort of things does the devil tempt people to do today?
